They turned Rajinikanth into a 'supersonic' superstar with their lyrics for the song Irumbile.. from Endhiran. And the accolades continue to pour in for their rapping and singing in the song. But Kash and Krissy, the young duo that has made heads turn in K-town don't intend to rest on their laurels. "We are planning to come up with our own album," say the duo in unison. But before that, they are planning to come up with a promotional album, "to make people get used to our kind of music." The album, comprising 10 tracks, will be available free on the Internet! Now isn't that novel, very much like their lyrics?
